REQUIREMENTS FOR QUALIFYING AS A STUDENT FOR CONTINUING BENEFITS AFTER AGE 18

To qualify for a continuing death benefit after reaching the age of 18 years, under the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act or one of the Act's extensions, a child, grandchild, brother, or sister must be either (1) incapable of self-support by reason of mental or physical disability, or (2) be a student, regularly pursuing a full-time course of study or training at an institution which is-

1. A school, college, or university operated or directly supported by the United States, or by any State or local government or political sub-division thereof,
2. A school, college, or university which has been accredited by a State recognized or nationally recognized accrediting agency or body,
3. A school, college, or university not so accredited but whose credits are accepted, on transfer, by not less than three institutions which are so accredited, for credit on the same basis as if transferred from an institution so accredited, or
4. An additional type of educational or training institution as defined by the Secretary of Labor.

Compensation may be paid so long as a dependent continues to pursue a full-time course of study at a recognized institution. In no event may compensation be paid beyond the end of the semester or enrollment period after the dependent reaches the age of 23 or has completed four years of education. A child shall not be deemed to have ceased to be a student during any period between school years if the period does not exceed five months and if he or she shows to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he has a bona fide intention of continuing to pursue a full-time course of education or training during the semester or other enrollment period immediately following the period or during periods of reasonable duration during which, in the judgment of the Secretary, the dependent is prevented by factors beyond his or her control.

A child or dependent shall not be deemed to be a student under this Act during a period of service in the Armed Forces of the United States.

PRIVACY ACT OF 1974 NOTICE

In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (5 U.S.C. 552a) you are hereby notified that (1) the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, as amended and extended (33 U.S.C. 901 et seq.) (LHWCA) is administered by the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs of the U.S. Department of Labor, which receives and maintains personal information on claimants and their immediate families. (2) Information which the Office has will be used to determine eligibility for the amount of benefits payable under the LHWCA. (3) Information may be given to the employer which employed the claimant at the time of injury, or to the insurance carrier or other entity which secured the employer's compensation liability. (4) Information may be given to physicians and other medical service providers for use in providing treatment or medical/vocational rehabilitation, making evaluations and for other purposes relating to the medical management of the claim. (5) Information may be given to the Department of Labor's Office of Administrative Law Judges (OALJ), or other person, board or organization, which is authorized or required to render decisions with respect to the claim or other matter arising in connection with the claim. (6) Information may be given to Federal, state and local agencies for law enforcement purposes, to obtain information relevant to a decision under the LHWCA, to determine whether benefits are being or have been paid properly, and, where appropriate, to pursue salary/administrative offset and debt collection actions required or permitted by law. (7) Disclosure of the claimant's Social Security Number (SSN) or tax identifying number (TIN) on this form is mandatory. The SSN and/or TIN and other information maintained by the Office may be used for identification, and for other purposes authorized by law. (6) Failure to disclose all requested information may delay the processing of the claim, the payment of benefits, or may result in an unfavorable decision or reduced level of benefits.

Note: The notice applies to all forms requesting information that you might receive from the Office in connection with the processing and/or adjudication of the claim you filed under the LHWCA and related statutes.
